

Thank you for considering a donation to Griffith Tutoring!

Griffith Tutoring relies on the generous support of individuals and businesses to support its program and keep it completely free to the students. To satisfy increasing community demand for its program, Griffith Tutoring is raising money to reach 600 students a year by the fall of 2010.

With private tutoring costing over a thousand dollars per student, Griffith Tutoring offers a remarkable value and cost effective way for donors to impact numerous at-risk students. At a mere $300 a student, Griffith Tutoring provides its individualized six-week service that consistently increases student scores.

Griffith Tutoring requests your support to expand its program into 12 locations, reach 600 students, and continue to combat to Chicago's low college attendance rate.
